

Mom's really enjoying herself.
It's a relief to know she's well cared for.

"Everyone's so wonderful – the food, the people. This is my home now."

—Audrey,
Holton Home resident

"It's a load off my mind to see my mother in a pleasant, comfortable environment that she really likes."

—Jennifer, Audrey's daughter

Audrey came to Holton Home when her home became too much to care for. After settling in, she had hip surgery. "I couldn't wait to get back to my room and the kind folks at Holton Home," she said. Audrey has the energy to enjoy life now and always has a big smile.

Holton Home has a tradition of more than 100 years of service to the community. We provide a residence for elders who need help with daily tasks, allowing the freedom to maintain personal independence and enjoy life.
